15 Sandwich Street

Located at the south end of the Plymouth Main Street business district, and steps from the historic Waterfront area with tourist traffic to Plymouth Rock and the Mayflower. This very busy corner spot sits across from Town Brook, a tourist must-see and is also the final turn of Plymouth's world famous Thanksgiving Day Parade route. This free-standing building has its own private parking lot, which is rare in Downtown market, as well as a full basement for storage and office space. The building was fully renovated in 2009.
